What is Adult Foster Care (AFC)?

Adult Foster Care (AFC), also called Adult Family Care, is a program designed to help people on MassHealth age 16 or older with disabilities who cannot live alone safely.

This program provides 24-hour family living for elderly persons and disabled adults who due to frailty, chronic illness or advanced age who prefers to live in a family setting rather than in a nursing home or other facility.

AFC adults live with trained paid caregivers who provide daily care. Caregivers may be family members (except legally responsible relatives), or non-family members.

How can you be eligible for Adult Family Care?

- must be 16 years of age or older
- must need daily assistance with one or more activities of daily living (ADLs)
- must be unable to live alone because of a medical, physical, cognitive or mental condition and need supervision
- must be willing to live with your caregiver
- you must be eligible for MassHealth or able to pay privately
- your caregiver cannot be your spouse or a relative legally responsible for you.
- (Note: For a minor child, the caregiver cannot be a parent)
- must be approved and have written order for AFC by a physician and the agency responsible for determining AFC eligibility.

What are the requirements for Caregivers?

- Must be at least 18 years of age
- Can be biologically related to the person needing care, but cannot be the legal guardian or spouse
- Must be willing to share life and home with the person needing assistance
- Must be able to accept responsibility for the person's care and supervision of all health related activities

Your caregiver will receive:

- up to $1500 non-taxable pay per month for caregiver services ($18,000 per year), depending on the level of care needed.
